

WAUKESHA COUNTY FAIR OVERNIGHT RULES

1. Only exhibitors of dairy, beef, goats, horses, sheep, and swine are allowed to stay overnight with approved Camping Contract Application.
2. All exhibitors, parents or chaperones planning to stay overnight on the grounds shall register with the Fair Office prior to the Fair. The forms to request permission to stay overnight must be returned with entries no later than June 15th. A 12:00 midnight curfew will be strictly enforced for all junior departments.
3. All exhibitors, parents or chaperones shall agree to and comply with the Waukesha County Fair Code of Conduct & Ethics.
4. Livestock youth exhibitors must be 13 years of age before January 1st of the current year or have completed 7th grade by the time of the Fair.
5. No youth exhibitors will be allowed to stay on the grounds without an adult chaperone being responsible for them.
6. All overnight people must have Fair issued ID with them at all times.
7. No campers are allowed to move or "take ownership" of garbage barrels for personal site use. Garbage barrels are intended to stay in proper location for accessibility and maintenance throughout the run of the Fair.
8. Chaperones must be a least 21 years of age by Jan. 1st of Fair year, register with the Fair, and be accepted by the Fair.
9. No chaperone will be responsible for more than 10 youth exhibitors.
10. Youth exhibitors will attend and participate in the Waukesha County Fair and conduct themselves as a responsible young person with respect to other participants, leaders, chaperones, fair visitors, and their own health, safety, and well-being.
11. Youth exhibitors shall conduct themselves as a responsible young person which includes refraining from:
 - * Use of language found to be objectionable by other participants, leaders, chaperones, or fair visitors;
 - * The unauthorized use of any personal or public vehicles;
 - * Physically leaving the activity site without express permission of the chaperone in charge;
 - * The use or possession of all tobacco products;
 - * The unsafe or illegal use or possession of prescription and nonprescription drugs whether prescribed to myself or others;
 - * Consumption or possession of any alcoholic product;
 - * Vandalism or theft;
 - * Sexual misconduct;
 - * Any conduct which violates any applicable federal, state, or municipal law;
 - * Participation by willful presence at an unauthorized or secretive gathering where people are involved in any of the above conduct.
12. Must willingly abide by all rules, curfews, and policies established for the Fair and required for the exhibitor's health, safety, and well-being.
13. Respect all public and personal property and understand that the exhibitor may be held financially liable for any damage, beyond reasonable wear and tear, that is the result of an inappropriate action(s) by exhibitor.
14. Willfully leave the activity under the control or instructions of a parent or guardian, if so requested by the chaperone in charge, due to unacceptable action or behavior by exhibitor.
15. Acknowledge that if the exhibitor becomes involved in any unlawful act, the appropriate law enforcement authorities will be notified.
16. Youth exhibitors must be responsible for their personal property.
